

« 2nd annual Colorado Gives Back Day set for Dec. 6

STATEWIDE

The Community First Foundation and FirstBank will host the second annual Colorado Gives Day on Dec. 6.

The day is an initiative to increase philanthropy in Colorado through online giving to Colorado charities. Participants can go online to www.givingfirst.org/cogivesday to see a list of nonprofits and to donate.

Several Weld County agencies will benefit from the day including, Boys & Girls Clubs of Weld County, Boy Scouts of America — Longs Peaks Council, Eldergarden Adult Day Care, Greeley Center for Independence, Inc., The Greeley Dream Team, Inc., High Plains Library District Foundation, Humane Society of Weld County, A Kid's Place, Pathways Hospice, Partners Mentoring Youth, Right to Read Weld County, United Way Weld County, Weld Food Bank and A Woman's Place.

According to a news release, $8 million was raised throughout Colorado on the day last year.

Staff reports